✍■ Suggested New Reflection Questions (for Practice or Class)

Question	Simple Explanation / Answer
What is the difference between Artificial General Intelligence (AGI) and Narrow AI?	AGI can perform any intellectual task like a human. Narrow AI is good at only ...
Can AI ever fully replace human decision-making? Why?	Not fully. AI lacks emotions, ethics, and understanding of complex human situ...
What are some ethical risks of using AI in daily life?	Bias, privacy invasion, job loss, and misuse (e.g., surveillance or deepfakes).
How can we ensure that AI models give fair and unbiased results?	Train on diverse data, audit regularly, and set clear ethical rules.
How should we verify if AI-generated answers (like from ChatGPT) are accurate?	Cross-check with reliable sources, use human judgment, and ask experts.

■ More Critical Thinking Questions to Discuss:

• Should there be global rules for how AI can be used?

• What kinds of jobs are most at risk because of AI?

• Can AI help solve global problems like climate change or poverty?

• Who should be responsible when AI causes harm or makes a mistake?

• How do we keep AI safe and under control in the future?